the fish ranging from 18 to 20 pounds each.

The trapper doesn't get any money for the trapping but he gets to keep the catch and mount the heads if he so desires.

Rittersbacher said it was necessary for Kenneth May, lake patrolman, to be present at each opening of the traps, therefore it was not feasible for just anybody to ensnare the cannibalistic fish.

The lake has become heavy with the big fellows. No good ilsherman ever brags to his friends about catching a carp or buffalo, but there are those who love them.

Is Worker Through At 40 or 45? It's Father Of State Harder For Job Applicants At That Senator Taylor Age, Employment Commission Admits Of Kerens Dies

Young People Sought

It is the same doubt that come to all men sooner or later after they pass over the 45-year mark. It is the same one that beats a re-treat during the war years. When Is Man Through?

The cause is simple, too. Those who hire lean toward he younger men and women. When the supply of the younger ones is diminished, as it was during the war, so does the demand for those in the older age brackets increase.

During the war a man was not asked how old he was. It was merely ascertained if he could walk, and if he could he went to work.

This particular man—the lawnmower man—had a good job with When Is Man Through?

Those with long association with job applicants regret to see the day returning when there will be no call for the man past 45 or even 40 years.

In Corsicans the trend is reached the reality stage already.

This man, who went back to the lawnmower, isn't an isolated case at all.

In Darkest Days Jews Turned to Religious Revival Under the Leadership of Ezra and Nehemiah—New Loyalty to Old Law—A * Lesson For Today

A Nation That Flouted God
No other people ever had this truth expounded to them as often and as clearly as the ancient Jewish nation. A long line of prophets has been sent to them to declare that the Lord God Jeho ah was sovereign in their affairs, and that disobedience to Him could bring only disaster. So permanently profound were the teachings of the Hebrew prophets that their words blaze and burn with living fire today.

It needs the imagination of a novelist to picture the heart-burning experiences of the Jews in exile. They had lost their homes and their nation, by their own stupid sinning. They had offended against the clear light of the moral law. They saw that Jehovah could use the heathen as His instrument of punishment and correction. First Israel had fellen, then Judah, They had often strayed into idolatry; now they were

Critical Errors Figure In Loss By Local Team

By TALMADGE CANANT
Sun Sports Staff
Corsicana Tigers threw a scare into the Waco Bengals Tuesday afternoon at Territo Park here before going down before the visitors, 8-4, in a District 9-AA contest.

The Bengals were a far cry from the team that went to Waco on April 13, and lost by a top-heavy 18-1. Yesterday Corsicana got plenty of hits, and made no more errors than their opponents, but the bobbles came at the wrong time, and that was what hurt Boyd Payne's crew.

Second Frame Disastrous

Waco added four runs in the second off a single, a squeeze play and two Corsicana errors. After that erratic inning, the locals settled down. Except for that frame, the teams played on even terms.

Corsicana made its other serious threat in the sixth. Jackie Crook made it to first on a fielders choice. Owens singled, and Poarch made it on a fielders choice. Bowen then pushed out a neat double to deep right field, and drove Crook and Owens home. Harkins fanned and the side retired. Darwin fanned three straight in the seventh.

Corsicana got more hits than waco, but 11 locals died a natural death on base.

Payne's crew goes to Hillsboro Friday afternoon in their next district encounter.
